CASE STUDY: FUNDAÇÃO AGIR HOJE

CASE STUDY

The challenge

To help implement a new Foundation in Portugal, assisting in its planning and evaluation, and also in operational areas such as partnerships, fundraising and models for self-help groups and volunteer work.

The process

Working together with the organisation to achieve consistent operational planning and evaluation processes aimed at impact evaluation, stakeholder fulfilment and success of its vision and mission, namely and foremost the establishment of self-help groups for people in debt. Always having in mind the sustainability of the organisation.

The results

An operational plan, intertwined with the strategic plan. Detailed action plan, with policies and strategies for partnerships, fundraising and volunteer work. Models and evaluation for self help groups.

The future

To position Fundação Agir Hoje as an innovative social organisation, working with people in debt through self help groups, in order to give back to them a sense of self worth and let them know that they are neither alone nor without solutions.
